

2009 ANDELUNA MALBEC
"BEST SINGLE VARIETAL WINE UNDER £10 IN THE WORLD" from Decanter Magazine!

ANDELUNA

MENDOZA • ARGENTINA

The Andeluna name and label recall the romance and mystery of the Argentine moon illuminating Uco Valley at the foot of the majestic Andes Mountains. The estate combines fruit grown in world-class vineyards with the best of Argentina's winemaking traditions. At an elevation of 4200 feet near the town of Tupungato in Mendoza, Andeluna is surrounded by 170 acres of exceptional, high-altitude, mature vineyards planted to Bordeaux varietals.

TORRONTÉS Winemaker's Selection

Indigenous to Argentina but genetically linked to the Malvasia varietal family from the Eastern Mediterranean, Torrontés yields clean, crisp wines with bright, refreshing character and fine definition. Some compare this to Italy's Pinot Grigio.

ONE OF DECANTER'S "TOP 10 ARGENTINE WINES" and a BRONZE MEDAL!

STEPHEN TANZER on the 2008: 88 POINTS "Medium straw-yellow. Peach, spices and floral honey on the nose. Quite dry and subtle, with a sneaky intensity to the flavors of tropical fruits and apple. A firm yet delicate torrontes with nice persistence."

MALBEC Winemaker's Selection

10% draw-off, cold pre-fermentation maceration ~ fermentation at 79°F with 3 daily pump-overs/day ~ 8 months in French and American oak. Andeluna uses 1-2 daily delestages to develop mature, dramatic aromatic/palate profiles.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON Winemaker's Selection

CHARDONNAY RESERVE

100% estate Chardonnay grown at Andean elevations and manually harvested in early morning. The very best bunches were destemmed and fermented; aged in new French oak barrels for 12 months and then aged 4 more months in bottle.

Aromas of pear, green apple, white peach, pineapple and jasmine introduce flavors of ripe white fruits, glazed fruits, butter and clove; excellent balance, long finish; splendid with shellfish, fish and poultry, especially with rich cream-based sauces.

MALBEC RESERVE

Full bodied and complex with scents of cherry, dried fruits, sweet pepper, truffles and spiced cedar. Ripe black cherry, dried tomato, tea and coconut flavors with notes of vanilla and sweet spices. An easy complement to grilled, smoked or roasted beef or lamb, hearty sauces and rich stews, this Reserve Cabernet has impressive concentration and an outstanding finish.
